Section I. Statements – District Purpose

Tenants leasing a Resident's unit (within the limits of the Herons Glen Recreation District) will be designated as the beneficial user of the Resident's use of the Facilities. Prior to use of such Facilities, the tenant shall submit an information statement, together with a copy of the fully executed lease to Management. Any changes or amendments to the lease agreement must be reported immediately to Management. Rights of the tenant will terminate upon the expiration of the lease term. During the period that the tenant is designated as the beneficial user of the Facilities, the Resident shall not be entitled to use of the Facilities; however, the Resident shall be responsible for all of the tenant's charges, and/or damage to the Facilities, which remain unpaid or not repaired after the customary period. The Resident shall also be responsible for the conduct of their tenant.
